Capturing the record

Auscript delivers transcription services for:

- Courts and tribunals
- Parliament
- Commissions and inquiries
- Arbitrations
- Depositions
- Public and private companies.

Auscript can capture a crystal clear record of any court proceeding, event or meeting using our portable recording solutions.

We can also transcribe your own recordings to suit your preferred style and deadlines.

Fast delivery

We provide the record when and where you need it.

Transcription turnaround options include:

- Web Streaming: Live audio and video delivered anywhere, at any time via a secure online streaming application – Court.fm
- Real-Time: Delivery of the electronic transcript seconds behind the spoken word both in the courtroom and to remote clients
- Progressive/Same-Day: The court and parties can receive a transcript of the morning session during the lunchtime adjournment and receive a final transcript within two hours of adjournment
- Next Day: The completed transcript will be delivered on a 24-hour turnaround
- Deferred: Transcripts can be delivered by close of business on requested turnarounds.

Proven experience

The Auscript difference is our relentless focus on delivering fast, precise, secure recording and transcription services to our clients.

- Fast and on time: We transcribe over two million pages annually – with delivery options available as quickly as within seconds of the spoken word.
- Guaranteed quality: We produce transcripts with the highest level of accuracy meeting agreed service standards and capturing audio with absolute clarity.
- Record confidence: We are depended on to capture the record – recording hundreds of thousands of hours of audio across thousands of courtrooms globally.

- Simple and transparent: Our online ordering system simplifies the payment process and allows for tracking of every transcript in the production cycle, with full access to analytics to measure our performance.
- Robust security: We securely transfer audio and transcripts, and offer dual redundancy.

The Auscript Advantage

Working with the court record every day, we understand the importance of high quality audio to the court reporting process. Crystal clear audio is the key to delivering a fast and precise court transcript.

That is why we record, monitor, store and distribute audio and video, using For The Record technologies, on behalf of many of our court clients. This way we have recording confidence, and they have total peace-of-mind.

At Auscript, our network of skilled local teams work around the world to deliver high volumes of accurate transcripts quickly. When transcripts are needed in real-time, we deliver just seconds behind the spoken word.

We offer new and smart ways to streamline workflows and deliver extra certainty and efficiency to judges and the judiciary – along with reliable and easily accessible records for attorneys/lawyers and parties.

Our outstanding people and production methods are supported by cutting-edge hardware and software.

It is this combination that has transformed the process of capturing and transcribing the court record, with systems that have the potential to redefine how the global justice community works.

Together, this is the Auscript advantage.
